The Little Riding hoods by slava

Once upon a time there were two little girls called little orange riding hood and little white riding hood but for short little orange and little white. One day they went to the meadow to pick flowers but then they fell into a hole! One hour later of doing NOTHING they got bored so they started singing this "at eight to 10 clock I had no more rooming." They forgot most of the words but they kept on singing over and over until they got hungry and they brought bananas and pens to draw for the bananas they drew so much that "BOOM!" the bananas exploded! "Eww!" said little white "Gross!" said little orange. So then they decided to start eating each others hair with gross. That sounds like gross spaghetti bolognese. But then a BIG BAD chicken came. They started to run in circles yelling "we have so much chicken nuggets to eat for!" The chicken became furious and began to peck them they ran on the wall and fell back in! The chicken ran out. And nothing was heard after that. The End.

And the leader said

We are from planet paridot what is made of paridots but only the ones that look like this can walk and talk

Skull duggery Pleasant Bedlam

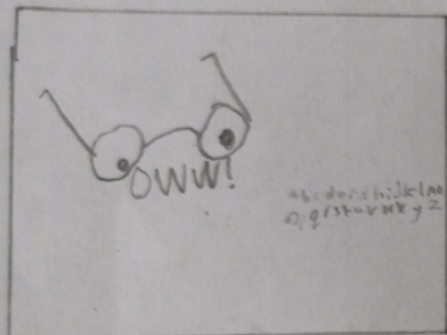

This fantastic book is the 12th in the series and follows the adventure of Valkerie Cain while she tries to fix her sisters soul while trying to stop abysnia from starting a war between Sorcerers and Mortals.

I would recommend this book to anyone who is into fantasy and is over 9. But you should probably read the first books first.

Reading small print is bad for eyes

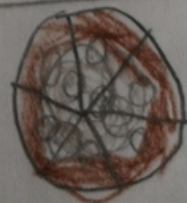

Doctor Michel Jackson's research proves that reading small print is bad for your eyesight, and you shouldn't read newspapers and such. One test subject with perfectly good eye sight was put to only read small print for 2 months, where they stopped they needed glasses.

Man gets married to wheely bin

Yesterday, a man named Tim can married a wheely bin name Jessica. The marriage took place in a grocery store. "I'm so happy for my little baby!" said Tim's mother. "...!" said Jessica's father. The marriage was almost cancelled because Jessica didn't say "I do" but there a gust of wind blew her so her head shook like yes.

I want to be a Artist

I want to be a artist because I love all types of arts like painting. My mother was a painter and so is my Aunt. When I am a artist I want to find a second job then I will save up for some art equipment. after ~~maybe~~ I'll get in love. The arts I am most interested in painting, pottery, drawing and more. I will want to live in a home with a pet. So far I really paint grass, blue sky, trees, and leaves. I don't do alot of pottery but when I do do pottery, its really fun. My favorite subject is art, its just like riding a horse when you make a mistake its bad but as long as you're having fun its fine.

I want to be a Artist continued.

When I return from being a artist I'll try to stay healthy.

I don't know will I return I wrote that just in case. I like reading books so I have some art books that can help me become an artist.

I don't know what I should have my second job but I think it should be something simple like a shopkeeper or a simple worker, just a simple job. I am pretty good at origami I wonder does an artist do origami?

The reason I like drawing is because its so easy and fun and I'm good at it.

I like making stuff for costplays like masks!

That I want to be an Artist. The End.

Animals

I will be writing about three animals. Number one, Rabbits. I like rabbits because they are small and fluffy like a pom pom. They live in forests or places where there is lots of grass. Rabbits like to hide in long grass. They hide from owl, wolves and other predators. Rabbits eat carrots, lettuce and other vegetables. Do you know what dust bunnies are they are balls of dust which look like grey bunnies.

Number two, Snakes. Venomous snakes can inject poison through their teeth to kill or paralyze their prey. Their mouth can stretch really far so they can eat mice and other rodents.

Animals Part two

Snakes can be really long and can be really big. Sometimes snakes eat smaller snakes. Some snakes have fangs at the front of their mouths. Snakes swallow rodents whole. Some snakes have an extra skill, they can feel the heat of another animal's body.

Number three, dogs. Dog were worshipped in Ancient Egypt. Pet dogs eat dog food while wild eat rabbits, mice and other animals. Pet dogs sometimes scratch a carpet on a dog bed, because in the wild the dog makes a hole to sleep in. There are lots of dog breeds eg: hachiko, shih tzu, Schnauzer and more.

28/03 WHY DID I THINK SPILLING PAINT
ON THE CARPET ~~IS~~ AND NOT TELLING ANYONE FOR A WEEK IS A GOOD IDEA.

I don't think that that is a good idea, it happened when I was painting my room black but then I looked at my brother he was scrubbing the floor and then he asked me for help so I got some wipes and started scrubbing I randomly stopped and kept on painting. my brother put the box on and finished a drawing I don't know how it started, but it started with blue paint, I didn't want to get in trouble because I knew that if I got in ~~trouble~~
it would be big trouble, trouble

I don't see any remorse here

25/03

Why Did I think Spilling paint on the carpet and not telling anyone for a week
is a good idea

That's why I feel sorry and angry at myself for not telling anyone that there's paint on the floor. Next time something like that happens I'll tell my dad, my Aunt or the camera.

* Ability to change the world

You might think that time travel or telekinesis but, today I am going to talk about.

Dog talk, the ability to talk to dogs. If you could talk to dogs. It will change the world because you can ask them questions like "Was there a robbery here?" or "Did I feed you this morning?"

It'll be a fruit ^{which} when you eat it you can talk to dogs. It'll work by when you eat it a part of dog D.N.A goes through your throat and stays for 10-15 minutes. It will look like a pear that is grey, white, black, brown, orange or blond.

26/03

A Ability to change the world part 2

And also if you switch the dog D.N.A for human D.N.A and feed it to a dog but the dog would probably talk like a baby depends whose D.N.A you put in the fruit.

I got the idea from my Aunt she didn't know did my dad feed my dog, but if she could talk to dogs she could ask w w (my dog) "did dad feed you?"

I call this fruit "Serrie fruit". It will be fully digestible because it'll be a pear with some dog D.N.A.
